

1

Open the Photoshop and use the marquee or quick selection tools create the selection that you want to made the white spot.

2 Create a new spot channel.

4 Save as TIFF format.

Set the spot name and ink characteristics.

PhotoPRINT: Made the spot white in Photoshop

TIFF Options	×
Image Compression NONE LZW ZIP JPEG Quality; Maximum Iarge file	OK Cancel
Pixel Order     Pixel Order     Interleaved (RGBRGB)     Per Channel (RRGGBB)      Byte Order     IBM PC     Macintosh
<ul> <li>Save Image Pyramid</li> <li>Save Transparency</li> <li>Layer Compression</li> <li>RLE (faster saves, bigger files)</li> <li>ZIP (slower saves, smaller files)</li> <li>Discard Layers and Save a Copy</li> </ul>

- Tips: 1, Save option: Let the "spot color" checked.
  - Color: Let the "ICC profiles" unchecked.
  - 2 TIFF options: Use the LZW compression.

5 Add the TIFF file to the PhotoPRINT.

- Tips: The PhotoPRINT must have the TIFF spot channel option password and opened this fuction.
  - If not, the software can't read the spot channel.

Set the White options as spot white.

Set "Job properties-Separations"

Set the spot channel print as spot white.

Tip: Double click the channel can appear the dilog.